It's coverage for who you are.

Covering what you can't see

Underground service lines—like sewer, water, phone, cable, and electrical lines—are a hidden risk. Protect yourself against costly repairs in the event of a loss with our service line coverage.

Rest assured

If an incident leaves your home uninhabitable, and you are forced to temporarily relocate, our loss of use coverage stays with you until your home is fixed, no matter how long it takes. Loss of use reduces your out-of-pocket living expenses while you await repairs.

Watching out for water

Water damage from backup is among the most common claims, and it can happen on any floor. Hanover Prestige Home offers water backup coverage, with optional limits up to the replacement value of your home.
